Proposal 3

November 2018

Changes in Election Law

Vote@Home - 9.23.19 - BOE Regular Meeting

Proposal 3 - Expanded Voting Rights...

Made voting more convenient:

1. Allowing voters to vote absentee (Vote@Home) without providing a reason

1. Allowing a citizen to register to vote anytime, including on Election Day, with proof of residency

Proposal 3 - Expanded Voting Rights...

Absentee Voting or “Vote@Home” :

- Voters no longer need a reason to request an absentee ballot.
- Local clerks must be open for at least 8 total hours on the Saturday and/or Sunday prior to an election to issue absentee ballots.
  - Check michigan.gov/vote for local clerk’s specific hours
- College Students: MVIP “must vote in person” no longer applies and first-time voters are elgible to vote by absentee ballot

Proposal 3 - Expanded Voting Rights...

“Same Day” Voter Registration:

- 15 days prior to the election and before: Voter may register in person at an SOS branch office, county clerk’s office, local clerk’s office designated state agency or by mail.
- 14 day prior up through and including the election day: Voter must register in person with there local clerk’s office with residency verification in order to vote in the upcoming election.
